Interfaith Food Bank Society of Lethbridge relies heavily upon donations of food, funds, and gifts in kind from within our community.

Hours of Operation:
Monday - Friday
8:00 am - 4:00 pm

Food Donation

We are only able to give what we receive. We are constantly recruiting donations of fresh, frozen and non-perishable food items.

Financial Contributions

Financial contributions are used to purchase food, support programs and activities, and cover operating costs.

Gifts in Kind

Choose to donate products, services or discounts that will help us to support our activities and those we serve.

Giving Options

Interfaith Food Bank recognizes the human dignity of those in need, and provides food and access to services and resources generated from within our community.

Corporate Volunteer Experience Package

Partner with us to help fight hunger in our community! Our corporate experience packages promote employee development while helping those in need. Benefits include:

- Customized group experiences that fit your schedule and budget.
- A chance to learn about food insecurity and its impact.
- Team-building experiences that strengthen camaraderie.

“The satisfaction that comes from knowing you’re making a direct impact on those in need is immeasurable. My experience volunteering has deepened my appreciation for food banks, as I’ve seen the tremendous effort that happens behind the scenes.”

Legacy Gifts

Legacy Giving is a wonderful way to benefit your charity of choice over time, or to plan for a gift down the road that will support your cause for years to come. Collaborate with your financial advisor to determine the most suitable approach for these arrangements.

- Monthly Giving
- Wills, Bequests & Life Insurance
- Gifts of Securities including Stocks, Bonds, and Mutual Funds
- Interfaith Food Bank Endowment Fund administered by the Community Foundation
- United Way Workplace Giving
